Courses taken on official University of Miami Office of Study Abroad programs receive UM credit. This form is for students to request from the departmental advisor that credits earned be used to fulfill specific requirements.

When requesting equivalencies, students should show the departmental advisor the host university course description and the grading scale with the credit conversion rate. Students and advisors can request the conversion scale from the Study Abroad office.

Students should make a copy of this form to take with them abroad. The original should be submitted to the student's academic college or school prior to departure. If there are any questions about the transfer of credits from courses taken abroad, contact the UM Study Abroad office at 284-3434.
